MORRISON SUPPORTED.

YOUNG BROOKLYN DEMOCRATS DINING.

TRECHES BY SENATORS BAYARD AND PENDLETON, MR. BLACKBURN AND OTHERS. The Young Men's Democratic Club, of Brooklyn, gave a dinner at the As-embly Rooms, Montague-st., last evening, to express sympathy with the Morrison Tariff bill. About 250 guests sat down, among whom were Senator Bayard, of Delaware; Senator Pendleton, of Ohio; Senator-elect Blackburn, of Kentucky; Congressmen Hurd, of Ohio, Tucker, of Virginia, Morton, of Indiana, and Sloenm, of New-York; ex-Congressman Mark D. Wilbur, Judges C. E. Pratt, E. M. Cullen and Henry A. Moore; John C. Calhoun, of Arkansas; General Horatio C. King, Charles S. Higgins, ex-Senator Murtha, Everett P. Wheeler, Hugh McLaughlin, Senator J. J. Kiernan, Controller Brinkerhoff, Surrogate Livingston, Samuel D. Babcock, District-Attorney Ridgway, Thomas G. Shearman, General J. B. Woodward, ex-Mayor Howell and ex-Attorney-General Fairchild.

Edward M. Shepard, president of the club, who Edward M. Shepard, president of the club, who presided, claimed credit for the Democratic party for Civil Service and administrative reform, and said that the addition of tariff reform was needed to secure success. An allusion to Senator Pendleton was greeted with three cheers. Letters of regret were read from Governor Cieveland, Horatio Seymour, Speaker Carlisle, Congressmen Cox. Hewitt and Morrison, ex-Governor English, of Connecticut; ex-Senator Kernan and Joseph Pulitzer. Mr. Morrison said:

We are trying to make the burdens of the great State of New-York a little lighter; her commerce a little freer. If we fall, it will be because her chosen Democratic repre-sentatives, forgetful of Democratic principles, shall units with Republican protectionists in voting to maiatain war tauff taxe.

Speaker Carlisle wrote:

The time for resolutions and declarations has passed, and the time for action has come. We may not be able to accomplish all that ought to be done, but we can do something to give assurance to the country that we have been sincere in our professions, and that it is our fixed purpose to reduce and equalize the burdens of taxation as rapidly as circumstances will permit.

Congressman Hewitt wrote:

I cannot subscribe to all the propositions contained in the circular which you have sent me, but I sincerely hope that the measure which will finally be perfected in the House will be one which will commendate if to the jude-ment of intelligent men on both theoretical and practical grounds.

Responding to the toast, "The Supreme Law of the Land," Senator Bayard said:

the Land," Senator Bayard said:

The supreme law of the land is by its observance the true and only means of obtaining liberty. Neglect, forget, disregard, disobey it, weary of its command, and you will lose liberty itself. Obey, cherish, respect it, and liberty will flourish and biess us and our posterity. When all the power is given to the shifting majority of Congress there is no stability. Under that decision all forms of prosperity are subside to the ebb and flow of party power and excitement. The power of taxation is now openly proclaimed not to be to provide for government expenses, but to cover all the fields, and raise all the moneys the States may need for every purpose. It is deciared that taxes shall be levied solely for the purpose of transferring the property of the many into the pockets of the few. What is such a system but legilized communism? The doctrine of Staterights met disravor in the North because it was the defence of an institution uself imbedded in the Constitution. Now that slavery, thank God, is gone forever, that same sariet construction doctrine is still here and should be taken up and insisted upon if we would secure the blessings of liberty. The Government can be overthrown more easily by the system of exasion than by the service hosts of a nostile power. The only limitation put on Congress is that it cannot chance the sexes established by Nature. I want the cry of liberty raised and kept up from a sense of duty and a sense of your own self-preservation. Politics is not a trick. Government is not a swindle. Politics is not a trick. Government is not a swindle. Politics is not a trick. Government is not a swindle. Politics is not a trick. Government is an American right. The Constitution is the supreme law of the land, and only the laws passed in pursuance of it.

Senator Bayard's address was greeted with re-

Senator Bayard's address was greeted with re-peated applause. At its close three cheers were twice given for "The next President of the United States." SENATOR PENDLETON AND THE SURPLUS.

Senator Peudleton, replying to the toast " Reform of the Civil Service-a truly Democratse meas-ef the Civil Service—a truly Democratse measure," said:

No word touches so deeply the hearts of the people as reform. We have a system of taxation which last year gave the Government a surplus of $134,000,000, which this year gives it a surplus of $134,000,000, which this year gives it a surplus of $55,000,000, and which next year will yield $106,000,000, it would be better to borrow for a deficiency than to have this excessive surplus to tempt the Government to layish expenditure. That surplus is collected by a gigantic robbery, it will be spent in corruption. The prescut tariff is the product of competing and combining selfabness of private interests, seeking protecting bounties at the expense of the people. [Applause,] It has impoverabled many industries to subscilize a few. It prohibits imports that might purchase the products of american labor. It has degraded American commerce from the first to an inferior rank on the high seas. It has cut down the sales of American manufactures at home and abroad, and depleted the returns of American agriculture. It costs the people more than it produces to the Treasury, obstructs the proceases of production and wastes the fruits of labor. It promotes fraud, fosters smuggling, enriches dishonest officials and banzarupts honest merchants. Two rules are sure guides in this reform—first, to reduce the expenditures of the Federal Government to the lowest possible point consistent with the effective execution of the limited powers with which it is endowed. Second, to ea adinst laxation that every dollar collected shall go into the Treasury to provide the necessary revenues. Their application will complete the work. [Applause.]

Side by side with this reform stands appropriately the reform of the civil service. It is perhaps the more important and far-reaching. In its largest scope it involves the purification of the whole system of administration. I confine myself to a narrower view. The existence of an office cannot be justified except on the ground that it has work to do f of our fifty millions of trovert. [Applause.] SPEECH OF SENATOR-FLECT BLACKBURN. Senator-elect Blackburn spoke as follows to the toast, "War Taxes not for Times of Peace":

Senator-elect Blackburn spoke as follows to the tonst, "War Taxes not for Times of Peace":

Twenty years aso the attempt to make two Governments out of one failed in this country, and the wounds of that period-the darkest of our history—have been healed. We know that there was a war, because the statute books of our nation tell as that the revenues required in a time of distress are still exacted from a protesting people. You did in that period what you had a right to do to maintain your government in its integrity; you narrowed the limits of the foreign tradesmen who sought a market on your shores; you called into existence a species of taxation never known to the American people before—taxing not only consumption but production—but no one complained, because alloyal and patriotic people recognized the necessity of these measures. But your last enemy has sworn renewed allectance to a country by whose magnanimity he was permitted to reclaim its paternity. To-day I stand on a common interest, [Appisause.] The sentiment you have offered me carries with it your declaration that the taxes raised for war purposes are not needed to-day. Never has there come a voice of procest south of the Potomac or the Ohio arainst your liberal dealings with the soldiers in blue: and yet, may I not ask, why after every need you have to supply is satisfied, you are confronted with a surplus of over $100,000,000 raised by turdens upon the aiready stooping backs of taxpayers! I have come to you only to confer as to whether a policy cannot be shaped to relieve the burdens of the whole people.

As a Western representative I say to you I do not favor the sweeping away of the internal revenue laws, inquisitorial and oppressive as they may be. Repulsive as that system is, better turn your attention to the remedying of a holder, wickeder system—the tariff taxation devised in the throos of war, I do not want free whiskey or tobacco. I want free iron, free sugar and free sait for the consuming millions of the country. The responsibility for the freeing of the people rests now on the lower House of Congress. If the bill pending shall tail to pass, on the stump—everywhere in the coming can rass—the Republican party will fing in our face the taunt that a Democratic House failed to adopt a measure for the relief of the people after all their piedgres and promises. It was on those piedges that the control of the House was, two years ago, given into the hands of the Democratic party. I plead to the people before me to hold their representatives failthful to the promises they have given, or relegate them to the obscurity they deserve. If, when a voic comes on a bill, which proposes they have given, or relegate them to the obscurity they deserve. Congressman Hurd, of Ohio, spoke at some ength n "The Morrison Bill," and in its advocacy.

Other toasts and responses were as follows: "Our Commercial Marine," Henry W. Slocum; "Busi-bess Interests and the Tariff," David A. Boody; "Capital and Labor," Everett P. Wheeler; "The Democratic Or-ganization," Augustus Van Wyck, and "A Campaign on Principle," Fred. W. Hinrichs.

PRESIDENT LITTLE NOT A CANDIDATE.

Reports have been circulated lately that a Democratic state had been made up comprising the names of Charles Haighs, Public Prosecutor of Monmouth names of Charles Haighs, Fublic Prosecutor of Moninouth County, N. J., for Congress, and Henry S. Little, president of the New-Jersey Central Rullroad, for State Senator. A Taibune reporter yesterday saw Mr. Little, who said: "No, I am not a candidate for Senator, although my friends want me to run. My business will not permit my accepting a public office at present. Who will be the candidate! Well, I can't tell. I understand that several are spoken of; Speaker Stoney, Thomas G. Chattle and Samuel J. Griscom, among others."

ONE OF THE LOCAL DEMOCRATIC PARTIES. The Independent Democratic Organization, Oriando L. Stewart chairman, is now organized in every Assembly District. It will elect a General Committee as soon as the proper headquarters can be obtained. This will be within a week or two, a committee having the matter in charge.

WESTCHESTER COUNTY REPUBLICANS. DELEGATES FAVORABLE TO JUDGE ROBERTSON SE-

LECTED AT WHITE PLAINS. The delegates of the Republican District Concontion of tae Hd Assembly District of Westchester County, met at the Orawanpum Hotel, White Plains, yesterday, and were called to order by Edward B. Long, of White Plains, chairman of the last district convention. In addition to the delegates the friends and opponents of Collector Bobertson were present in strong force, crowding the parlors and halls of the hotel. Ex-Supervisor James Hopkins, of North Castle, a Robertson delegate, and Frederick W. Holls, opposition, were respectively nominated for chairman Mr. Henderson suggested that they be nominated for temporary chair-man, and they were. An attempt to take a vote showed that about 100 persons were voting instead of forty-seven delegates, a number of persons who were not delegates, mixing with the delegates to be counted. At this stage of the proceedings, Mr. Long said that inasmuch as be was chairman, he was determined that there should be fair play in the matter. He therefore appointed two tellers, George W. Hunt, and James H. Moran to receive the cortificates and votes of the delegates, as to who should be the temporary chairman. This course was followed, and resulted in Mr. Hopkins receiving twentyfour votes to twenty-one for Mr. Hoils.

The Convention then adjourned to the Town Hail, Mr. Hopkins taking the chair. Mr. Wood, of Mount Vernon, noved that a committee be appointed on the credentials moved that a committee be appointed on the credentials of delegates. H. C. Henderson, of West Chester, opposed the motion, because there was not a single seat contested. He moved to lay it on the table, which was agreed to by a vote of twenty-six to twenty-one. A petition signed by J. C. Spencer and Ziba Carpenter, against the manner in which the cances in the town of White Plains was conducted was presented and read.

Mr. Henderson said that, if the delegation of White Plains were thrown out, he should insist that the delegations of New Rochelle, Scarsdale and West Chester be subjected to the same ruling. By a vote of twenty-six to sixteen the matter was laid on the table. Mr. Holls made some personal remarks about the White Plains delegates, for which he was called to order. The temporary officers of the Convention were made the permanent officers.

officers of the Convention were made the permanent officers.

Delegates favorable to the choice of Judge Robertson to represent the District were elected by a vote of twenty-six to twenty-one. The friends of Judge Robertson then nominated John Van Santvoord, John H. Ulapp and E. B. Long to represent the District in the State Convention, and the opposition nominated Charles H. Willson, Col. James C. Cooley and William Porter Allem. Mr. Long was elected on the first ballot, Colonel Cooley on the second ballot, and Mr. Allen was elected by sectlamation. On motion of Mr. Henderson the delegates were authorized to appoint their alternates.

The HIM Assembly District Republican Convention, comprising the toward Cortingt, Bestford, North Salem.

comprising the towns of Cortlandt, Bedford, North Salem, Lewisburgh, Ossining, Newcastle and Yorktown, met yesterday at Palmer's Hotel, at Pines Bridge, and elected four delegates to the State Convention and five delegates to the Congressional District Convention to be held at White Plains on Saturday. The convention was organized by the selection of James Wood, of Bedford, as chairman. The following were unanimously chosen as delenates to the State Convenion: Jas. W. Husted, Cortlandt; Cyrus Lawrence, Lewisburg; John B. Tompkins, Yorktown; and W. H. Robertson, Beiford, Congressional: John Smith, Jr., Cortlandt; James Williams, Ossining; Jas. P. Teed, Somers; James Wood, Bedford; and H. W. Norton. New-Saiem.

In response to calls, Collector Robertson briefly responded. He said that in regard to the next President he had a decided preference, and that was for a Republican.

WILL MR. CURTIS GO TO CHICAGO?

Republican primaries were held throughout Richmond County last evening, for the purpose of electing delegates to the County Convention, which will meet next Saturday evening. George William Curtis has always made it a rule to vote regularly at both local and general elections, rarely failing to cast his vote, whether for Presidential Electors or a village constable. The polling place in the Sixth District of Castleton, where Mr. Curtis lives, was to the club-house of the Staten Is land Athletic Club last night. The wind whistled about the building as Mr. Curtis and a dozen or two of his neighbors—there are only thirty-four Republican votes in the district-cast their ballots. The two delegates selected were Mr. Curtis and Walter Durbrow.

Mr. Curtis and Walter Durbrow.

Mr. Curtis and to a reporter in his library: "I shall attend the County Convention, because it seems to be the tend the County Convention, because it seems to be the expressed opinion of our people here that perhaps something may be said there that will advise them. It will be impossible for me to attend the Coursesional District Couvention, because that will occur within a day of my address upon Wendell Phillips, and I shall be in Boston at that time. It looks now as if it would almost be impossible for me to find time to attend the Chicago Convention, but I will not say that I would not go if selected. It must really be a question of how much time a very busy man can spare. I have publicly expressed my preference for Edmunds as the candidate, and a few days ago did so during a conversation with some close friends of both myself and Mr. Arthur."

D. J. H. Willeox, who hast year was Mr. Curtis's alternate to the State Convention, said yesterday that a decided effort would be made to have Mr. Curtis sent to Chicago, either as a district delegate or delegate at-large.

BLAINE DELEGATES FROM PENNSYLVANIA. IRT TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.

Easton, Penn., April 5 - The Republican conerence in the Xth Congressional District met at Bethiebem this afternoon and selected Judge Kirkpatrick, of Easten, and Samuel Thomas, of Hokendauqua, delegates to the National Convention at Chicago. Dr. John Thomas, of Bucks County, and C. F. Chidsey, of North-ampton, were elected alternates, and all were instructed for James G. Blaine.

A SENATOR MISUNDERSTOOD.

Washington, April 5 .- Senator Miller, of Calffornia, says the San Francisco dispatch published this morning, to the effect that he had declined by telegraph morning, to the easest make has been as the common to be common a candidate for the Freedeney, is based on a misunderstanding of a dispatch sent by him to the Central Committee yesterday, declining to be a candidate for delegate to the Chicago Convention. He had not thought of the Presidency and has no aspirations in that direction.

LIQUOR-SELLERS IN POLITICS.

CINCINNATI, April 5 .- At the annual meeting here to-day of the Saloon-keepers' Association, a long discussion was had on the course to be pursued with referance to the spring elections. The discussion resulted in a decision to support George Richards, Republican candidate for Clerk of the Police Court. A resolution was adopted condemning the present Legislature for its action on the Scott law and the graded tax law. It was stated that nearly 300 liquor-dealers did not nay the Scott law tax last year and that they had not been mo-

THE WEEK IN SOCIETY. PLEASURES IN THE LAST WEEK OF LENT.

PROMISES FOR EASTER WEEK-BALLS, PARTIES AND WEDDINGS IN ABUNDANCE.

Another week of leisure has passed over the social world, and with apparent benefit to the devotees of fashionable life. Cheeks are regaining their freshness and eyes are growing brighter because of the enforced rest. Though the interest of society is mainly centred in the future, each day of the past week has brought something to prove that society still lives and moves in its sleep. Mr. and Mrs. Frederick R. Condert gave one of the handsomest dinner parties of Monday. It is so nigh to impossible to give a dinner party and get to at opera or theatre on the same day, that few people attempt it. For this reason a supper after the entertainment, usually at Delmonico's, is the almost universal practice, and that famous restaurant has been abloom at midnight very night during the week. The usual faces have been seen at the opera during the week, the attendance of "buds" and full-blown roses being about equal. Another splendid production of the "Huguenots" will doubtless cause a gala night this week. The circus has been visited by a number of young parties.

A pleasant evening was spent by the people of Brooklyn Heights, Monday, at the hall of the Historical Society where Professor Allien and Mr. Lincoln gave an amusing ntertainment in aid of the Training School for Nurses. Mrs. Seth Low, Mrs. Thomas Bowring, Mrs. John S. Ward, Mrs. John Leach and Miss M. L. Barber were the committee in charge. The Rev. Dr. Storrs, J. S. T. Stranshan, Mrs. Jenks and Mrs. Packer were noticed in the au-

Amateurs are not now content with giving theatricals but have entered the more difficult field of opera. To the excellent production of "Iolanthe," at the Academy of Music in this city, is to be added a successful rendering of an opera by amateurs at the Brooklyn Academy of Music last Tuesday evening. "The Pearl of Bagdad" is the title of the composition, and in its production Mr. Hill, Mrs. Thomas and Mr. Macy were noticeable for good singing and acting. There was a numerous and cordis

Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Draper gave a charming evening of Beethoven music on Tuesday at their house, No. 19 East Forty-seventh-st. Paul Dana, Mrs. Draper's brother, entertained the company with his violin, and other good artists were heard. Mrs. Rives, Mrs. Peters, Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Arthur Wellman were present among others. Private musicales have one advantage over the opera, in that people refrain from talking and interrupting the wedding of Dr. Carroll Dunham and Miss Margaret Wor nerchant, who carries gracefully both years and honors The wedding took place at No. 1 East Sixty-ninth-st., and was of the quiet, homelike sort. A merry and homo geneous party of young people met at the house of an evening. The occasion was a dinner to the bridal party who will take part in the wedding of Miss Jaffray and to have been a day for honoring prospective brides, for Mr. Jesse Seligman gave a large dinner at which were present three of those interesting people. They were broad silk ribbon elaborately embroidered with their names and imitations of various flowers. Mr. Lincoln entertained the company after dinner. Mr. and Mrs. J. H Ballantine also gave a sumptuous dinner at their house in

day. In this city these were two amusing entertainments, the buriesque of "Hernani," given by the Harvard sixlents at the University Club Theatre, and the annual meeting of the Potlack Club, where the members vied with each other for the credit of cooking the best dish and writing the worst poetry. Mrs. Pratt, of Twelfth-st., gave a large luncheon party for ladies, and Mr. Davis gave a stag dinner at Pinard's. A congenial dinner party gathered around Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Turnure's table, which was adorned with a fine plaque of hyacinths. In the afternoon many young ladies attended the championhip match at the Racquet Club, where they were rewarded by seeing the brilliant play of Mr. Shippen and Mr. Butherfurd. Three weddings in the evening, in Brooklyn, interested a many that city's good people. Miss Mary Isabel James, daughter of Congressman Darwin E. James, was married to Horatio M. Adams. Miss Jessie Louise Goodrich, the danniter of W. W. Goodrich, was married to Clinton Lawrence Roseiter; and Miss Eisle Crandail, daughter of Jesse A. Crandail, was married to Lieutenant William Kerby. Miss James was married in the Throopavenue Presduring a conversation with some close friends of both myself and Mr. Arthur."

OPPOSED TO ARTHUR ON LONG ISLAND.

At the Republican primaries for the town of Hempstead held at Rockville Centre resterday, thirteen delegates were elected to the Connty Convention to be held in Jamica on Tuesday to elect delegates to the Congressional District Convention, which will choose delegates, to the National Convention. The delegates are anti-Arthur, and are about evenly distiled between Edmunds and Bishie, with Lincoln for Vice-President.

built. The report is as follows:

This Committee, appointed by the New-York. West Shore and Buffale Railway Coupany, to examine claims of the North River Construction Company have made their report, in which they state that, after a careful scrutiny of all the claims of the Construction Company up to January 1, 1884, and the offsets of the Railway Company they advise that claims of the Construction Company should be allowed as a matter of right or by way of settlement, to the amount of $0,362,387.25 And that on amounts allowed as strict local claims there should be a computation of interest, which has been computed to March 1, 1838, at.

To the above should be added claims since January I, 1884, allowable on the principle of similar claims included in the report, as follows:

Extra expenditure on depot and atation buildings

On Buffalo Creek Connecting Railrowl
Advances for payment of interest on West
Shore bonds, and other cash advances between January 1, 1884, and January 12, 1884 89,999 07 $10,148,840 99

The Committee advise that offsets of the Batt-way Company be allowed as a matter of right or of settlement, to the amount of Leaving
To which should be added payments made by the Construction Company since January I, 1894.

$7,666,974.98 Making in all..... The receiver presents a plan for the relief of the West Shore Company, which appears, he says, to meet with more approval than any other which has been suggested. It provides for the funding of the coupons on the first mortgage bonds for three years into debenture bonds mortgage bonds for three years into debenture bonds running ten years, and having 6 per cent interest; the issue of a second mortgage of $25,000,000, of which $10,000,000 bonds will bear 5 per cent interest, and $15,000,000,000 bonds will bear so per cent interest, and $15,000,000,000 bonds, according to the pian, will be used to complete the railroad, pay rentals and for other purposes; the $15,000,000 to adjust the claims of the Construction Company; the renewal for one year of the loans made on the terminal bonds.

This pian has not been adopted by the West Shore Railway, and General Winslow said yesterday that no decisive action had been taken by the company. He added that the loan or the pledge of the terminal bonds had been renewed for one year according to the pian.

RUMORS DENIED.

COLUMBIA, S. C., April 5. — After diligent courty among the Clyde officials in this city concerning the rumored purchase of the South Carolina Railroad by the Clyde syndicate, no confirmation of the report can be btained. Nothing is known in Charleston of such a transaction, and those who are in a position to know say hat the report of the sale is without foundation. Colonel John B. Peck, general manager of the South Carolina Railroad, says that there is no truth in the report so far as he knows. Mayor Courtonay, of Charleston, expressed great surprise at that part of the rumor which referred to him. He was ignorant of the whole matter, and did not believe that the South Carolina Railroad was soid or

THE OREGON CENTRAL LAND GRANT. Washington, April 5 .- The House to-day took up the bill forfeiging the Oregon Central land grant. Mr. Payson explained the provisions of the bill. The measure, he said, was unanimously approved by the Committee on Public Lands. It involved 1,130,800 acres of public lands. The claim made to a portion of them was made solely by the Oregon Central Railroad Company, and no other corporation was interested in it. On the and no other corporation was interested in it. On the part of that corporation there was neither a legal nor an equitable claim to a single acre of the land involved. Debate followed, without action.

OPPOSITION TO FORECLOSURE.

CINCINNATI, April 5 .- The answer filed by W. M. Ramsey in the Toledo, Delphos and Burlington foreclosure case in the United States Court to-day is for coodhart & Co., of New-York, holders of $70,000 in oonds, who claim that the parties seeking the foreclosure have no right to relief, because, as Goodbart & Co. allege, upward of $600,000 worth of bonds were fraudulently ssued, whereas the respondent Goodhart & Co's. bonds issued, whereas the respondent coefficient Cost course were issued prior to those upon which the forcelosure suit was brought. The ground of fraud is set forth at length, the essential points being that Ballou, Case and associates, directors and officers of the Tolodo, Delphos and Burlington Road, had used their power as such officers and owners of a controlling interest in the Dayton and southeastern so as to make the issuance of bonds

SHOALING IN THE GEDNEY CHANNEL. Mayor Edson has received from Commander

Taylor the result of his examination of the entrance to the port. He has made soundings on the bar in the Gedney Channel and has discovered shoaling, within the last two years of two feet, reducing the depth from twenty-five feet to twenty-three feet at low water. He recommends a resurvey by the Coast and the Geodetic confidence operator, was before Justice Duffy at the Survey, as its thoroughness of methods will solve the Tombs Police Court yesterday for examination. Six question whether this shouling is permanent of temporary. But, he says, even should the latter prove to be the case, as twenty-five foot is all that is can be hoped for, and twenty-seven feet ought to be the minimum depth in the main channel across the bar, steps should immihediately be taken to deepen it to that extent. And, as he believes that the prosperity of New York harbor depends upon that minimum depth being maintained inviolably, he suggests the consistency of the two great causes of injury—dumping in the neighborhood of the bar and reducing the volume of water in the barbor by the multiplication of wharves and the reclamation of tidal lands.

ORITHARY.

EX-LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR JABEZ FITCH. [BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.]

CLEVELAND, April 5 .- Ex-Lieutenant-Governor Jabez Fitch died at the moon to-day. For over a year he had been rapidly diling in health and for eleven weeks he was confined to his bed. His disease was softening of the brain. Mr. Fitch was born in this city in 1823. His father was Gardner Fitch, a well-known citizen. Jabez Fitch received a country school education, and when a youth he went into the law office of Bolton & Kelly, where he made himself useful generally and studied law in the meantime. In 1846 he was admitted to the bar and two years later he was appointed City Solicitor, an office in which he developed considerable ability. When Frankim Pierce was elected President Jabez Fitch, who had identified himself with the dent Jabez Fitch, who had identified himself with the Democratic party, was appointed United States Marshal for the Northern district of Onle, a position he held for over four years. At the breaking out of the war he took an active interest in recruiting men for the service and was appointed a general of volunteers, having charge of Camp Taylor, on Sterlingare. The regiments he did so much in sending forth, however, were sent out under other commanders, and he finally volunteered as a private in the 19th Regiment, under General Beatty, who immediately appointed him quartermaster. After his return from the war he again attended to his real estate matters, taking always an active interest in political matters. In 1875 he was elected Lieutemant-Governor on the Democratic ticket.

OBITUARY NOTES.

The Rev. Francis J. Freel, for many years pastor of the Roman Catholic Church of St. Charles Borromeo in Sidney Place, and a well known figure in the streets of Brooklyn, died yesterday of congrumption, after a lingering illness. Proof Better Than Assertion CUBE OF LUMBAGO.

New-York, March 18, 1884. Some ten days ago I was taken with a very violent pain in the small of my back. It was so severe that I could hardly breather every movement caused great agony. I finally found out it was lumbage. Being entirely helpless, a friend sent to the drugglat and got two Allcook's Porous Plasters; sent to the druggist and got two Allcock's Porous Plasters; these were well warmed and applied to my back, one above the other. In half an hour, to my great delight and surprise, I found the pain began to abate. In two hours I was able to walk out and attend to my business, the pain being almost gone. Next day I was all right, but continued wearing the plasters for a week. I consider Allcock's Porous Plasters a miraculous remedy.

CURE OF KIDNEY DIFFICULTY AND PAIN IN THE BACK.

NO. 225 MYRTLE-AVE., BROOKLYN, March 19, 1884.

I am nearly 84 years old, and have suffered from rheumaties and kidney troubles. I have tried numberless remedies, but none ever relieved me as did Alleock's Forous Plasters. I suffer from pain in the lower part of the back, which is constant torture unless I keep your valuable plasters continually on. They are the only remety my family and self ever use for pains or screness in the chest or throat.

I take great pleasure in adding my testimony to the many thousands of persons who have been benefited by Alloock's Porous Plasters.

pains in the back and chest, and with considerable coughing particularly at night. My physician said my lungs were week and recommended outdoor exercise. This I did not relish, I and recommended outdoor exercise. This I did not relian, a felt so miserable and spiritless; my energy was gone. Suffering agony in lung and back I was induced by a friend to apply two Allcock's P asters to the chest and two to the spine. The pain ceased in a very short time. I then applied another plaster to my throat; to my great delight the cough stopped, and I slept ten hours that night. The next day I felt as if new life and energy was circulating through my veins, accompand to the property of the cough stopped. nice by a great relish for long waks in the open ar. With exercise came a good appetite and good digestion. In a few weeks my health was completely restored. My lungs are a little weak, and so is my back, and I am compelled to use a good many Allocck's Plasters during the winter months.
Right here I want to say that I believe two or three Allocck's Plasters applied to the spine act as a powerful tonic to the whole nervous system, and thus enables it to throw off local or general disease. I think if it had not been for Allcock's Plasters I should have moped to death, or gone into a decline E. F. WOOLSTON.
